Dear President Obama and Secretary Clinton,

I hope to be invited to the APEC CEO Summit 2011, which will be held in Honolulu, Hawaii on November 10-12, 2011. A summit where you will be in attendance. I am very much looking forward to meeting both of you. I have nothing as of this moment and I am embarrassingly poor. I hope that you and the people of our nation will have compassion for a foreign head of state, China's current succession emperor-in-exile, a good man, who is currently in poverty and badly in need of immediate financial help (medical, dental, and housing needs).

My resume and information about me appears online at my websites above as well as in intelligence information and reports gathered by the U.S. government from the time of my grandfather's arrival to Hawaii in 1871 to date. In 1990-91, I was the government negotiator between U.S. President George H.W. Bush and Iraq's President Saddam Hussein. I was able to secure Saddam's agreement and he was willing to withdraw and fully comply with demands made by the Bush administration with some limited conditions.

Again may I say, I am poor, homeless, unemployed and disabled. Your immediate help will be greatly appreciated. Please immediately get in touch with me as I have basic needs as well as urgent and pressing security needs as a foreign head of state and nation-to-nation conflict negotiator. How much does the safety and security of a foreign head of state living in your nation mean to both of you? Seeking good relations and seeking to build friendships.

Sincerely yours,

Yao Sui

Second-nephew of the late John Magoon, former president of Hawaiian Airlines, who is a descendant of Chun Afong, Hawaii's first Chinese millionaire (the Magoon, Ward, and Hustace families are wealthy kamaaina families descendants of Chun Afong and Hawaiian nobility); fourth-nephew of the late U.S. Senator Hiram L. Fong (R); and nephew to the current U.S. Senator Daniel K. Akaka (D), by way of Jeffery Akaka's marriage to Gail Kong.
