Dear President Obama and Secretary Clinton,

Once again may I say, officially by China's history and by China's Han-Chinese Imperial Court's installation of my respective grandfather of the 1600s (CHOW Shun Cheong), I am China's current emperor, today; China's Emperor-in-exile. That in every nation, generally speaking, a king exists, as permitted by God, to oversee and govern each and every nation around the world. This is factual and true. I am, also, an American and in 1990-91, I corresponded with many foreign heads of state, as well as sent letters to every embassy in Washington D.C. and to every mission at the United Nations. I wrote to many foreign governments, to Arab nations and European nations in an effort to find a solution and end the Gulf Crisis.

And as your nation's intelligence knows, I secured Saddam's agreement that he was willing to withdraw from Kuwait. Your then-Secretary of State said publically, on television, that 'all we want is for Saddam to get out of Kuwait'. Apparently, Saddam did not fully trust the U.S. government and an impartial go-between, someone like me, was needed to assure Iraq's legal and legitimate President in an effort to have him withdraw. Well, I did that and your government, I assume, intercepted my communications and had knowledge that Saddam was most willing to cooperate with the U.S. and withdraw. Your nation's press never published this story and fact and your government did not listen to Saddam or to me. I somehow became a non-person and no matter what I did or said was totally ignored.

So, a man waves a white flag and your nation has him executed (turned over to his enemies full knowing that they would have him killed. Tried on false charges and executed. Well, this is exactly what happened.

Then, too, I wonder, if the United Nations and its Secretary-General is ever interested in the truth or would this man censor intelligence information and letters going to him in an effort to remedy a large and grave international wrong? Do you ever listen to truth? Are you a man of honor and integrity? And what of your nation and government? Do you act on righteous principles in view of true and accurate facts or is your nation a nation of greed, not caring if it murders hundreds of thousands of people for oil? Which is it???

When a man gives you and/or your nation a way out through a negotiated process, would you not, would your nation not avail themselves of this man's offer and be humane by negotiating and compensating those whom your nation has wronged and murdered under the color of international law and in view of the United Nations? Would the United Nation's Secretary-General not be concerned? Would he censor my letters to him, not wanting to hear the truth and turning a blind eye to murders (by the tens of thousands) committed by the United States of America? Perhaps, too, it is time that the U.N. Secretary-General vacates his seat. I believe in God. I am a Christian. I am China's current emperor and thereby head of state in exile as China's current succession emperor!

I correspond with foreign governments and I secure international agreements from nations in my capacity as a head of state in exile (living in the United States of America). I am a good man seeking peace throughout the world. What more can any man expect of me? It is your government that is remiss and not Saddam nor I. This world's news media should have published the story, so as to have assisted in the bringing about of international peace and placed vital issues before the entire world. Do you not think so?

Does the very honored, truthful, and esteemed U.S. President ignore truth (why so?) and allow U.S. soldiers to murder and kill for the sake of oil. What happens, if the truth was known long ago by the U.S. government? Would it seek to murder and kill, so as to shut up lips and the truth in Iraq, so that no one will testify and that opponents to Saddam's very capable governing regime will shut up the truth and that he truth will not come to the forefront to testify to the murders and sins of Iraq's new regime and illegal U.S. involvement and murders in Iraq. That the real truth of this tragic situation in Iraq, where millions of innocent blood was shed by the U.S. government, will never surface.

You should really come clean or, also, be held responsible for the many hundreds of thousands of people that you via your government and military has killed and murdered in Iraq, done under the color of U.S. and international laws. Is the entire world governed by fraud and outright lies? And by whom and why so? Do you care? Does Ban Ki-moon care? Looking Presidential, while being illegal, is not the same as being Presidential!

Sincerely yours,
