Dear President Obama and Secretary Clinton,

How many letters must China's emperor and head-of-state-in-exile send before President Obama will answers his letters? Why and how many letters does it take for America's duly elected President to respond?

Officially by China's history and current imperial succession, I am China's emperor and head of state in exile. This is my 123rd official letter to President Obama and about 250 in total. I am and have been requesting official recognition and US Secret Service protection as well as help (financial, etc.) from the US government, people, and nation. Seeking to have the means to survive in this nation and, additionally, seeking the means to actualize my family's Chinese political and cultural heritage.

This letter to President Obama and to Secretary Clinton is a public letter, posted on my website at <http://himyaosui.wordpress.com>. On November 29, 2011, I will be 63 years old. How long must it take before President Obama re[plies to my many requests/letters and provides for my needs and welfare as I am not able, due to my being permanently disabled with a back injury and torn meniscus on both knees? I walk with the aid of crutches and leg braces/knee braces on both legs.

Being in poverty and facing pain daily is certainly no fun. Being unable to provide for myself, though I have a good college education, certainly hurts as I am a very capable and dignified soul trying to be the best person that I possibly can. Please go to my website for more information and details as well as for past sent letters.

Sincerely yours,
