To the Honorable Barack H. Obama II and Secretary Hillary Rodham Clinton,

This is my 128th letter to you with no reply back from either of you. I am writing to report that my life, in the past month, has been threatened twice. Don't you, both of you, care if irresponsible citizens threaten my life? The life of a foreign head of state, China's official emperor-in-exile who resides in the United States of America temporarily? If they should say to him "Give me your money or I'll kill you!" don't you care and wouldn't you provide this man, me, with Secret Service protection and official recognition, so that I might be able to petition people and organizations, raise money for my benefit and safety from wealthy sources here in America and worldwide?

I made a police report of this incident which happened about two days ago as well another occurred within the past month. Two threats to kill me, a foreign head of state as China's official emperor, within a month's time, and both of you refuse to do anything about this! The press and our nation should hear of this as well as your refusal to do nothing!

Sincerely yours,

驍騏
皇帝
