Dear President Obama, Secretary Clinton, and Congress,

This is my 132nd letter to you, President Obama, and I have not received a reply, from you, President Obama, to all of my past 131 letters. My letters go back to 2008, when you, President Obama, were first elected. As I have said many times, in my earlier letters, as you well do know, officially by the history of China and by my family's succession, I am officially the emperor of the nation of China. I am the foreign head of state, who was the political negotiator between George H.W. Bush and Saddam Hussein in 1990-91. Quietly, without the U.S. government and news media publishing this story, these events took place.

Many people in Congress, who were in office back then, should still remember me and my letters to them trying to mediate this war or political conflict.

The reason why I am sending this letter to you and to Congress is to make sure that you respond to my letters which are of a very important nature. If a foreign head of state sends mail to any U.S. President and in his letter says that he has secured a standing agreement with Iraq's President that he, Iraq's President, is willing to withdraw his forces from Kuwait peacefully, would any U.S. president be obligated to reply?

Should our nation ever lie about important political events such as the Iraq War and allow thousands of U.S. troops die needlessly? Not saying anything about the 2,000,000 opposition troops and civilians that our nation (military) has killed (murdered in cold blood). I plan to send this letter top media sources around the world and I hope that this letter is published for all people around the entire globe to know. Truth is more important than political lies told by our government, I want you to know.

Sometimes, I wonder how you and your predecessors could allow such to happen and how can you, all of you, sleep knowing the truth behind this conflict and war?

I hope you will get back to me immediately and have published the real truth behind the Iraq War as well as the real truth behind your birth in Kenya.

Sincerely yours,

夏安遠帝
