

MY AMERICAN JOURNEY

By H.I.M. Yao Sui, officially by China's history, Emperor of China and head of state in exile.

March 8, 2011 (11:00 AM): I am a Christian and my life is and has been dedicated to God. Here I am a person, an individual, and UH student. I currently have no friends, no close friends or peer circle, and no business associates. Blah, boo-hoo! I am 62 years of age and with no wife or girlfriend. I am poor, so making friends does not come easy as people need a common interest, something to share, before people will spend time with you. I see a lot of good looking women (students) at the University of Hawaii daily. None for me, I guess. So, much for China's emperor-in-exile and head of state. Title, without money, means very little to the average American at this level. How good is your kungfu? Sometimes, as powerful as we, man, may be/are we all feel like giving up on life as no one really cares! I have my own needs and medical needs. My needs, as a commoner, are not being met. What is life then, really? What is man's role? And is life really worth the effort? Does God truly exist? Do people really and truly worship God and conform to God's ways and belief? What then is the purpose or mandate of life and/or rulership? Exactly what is man? What is life and where do we go from here? What of democracy, hypocrisy, and lies? What should the position of good people be towards the desire to live under a righteous and upright government? How should I govern China? Anyone with any good suggestions? And is there a true purpose to my life as China's current succession emperor?

March 10, 2011 (8:09 AM): Life is a gift from God and I am a solid and upright Christian. Life is too good to throw away, yet I feel that people should be allowed their meaningful thoughts and feelings. When a person is feeling low, they need to re-evaluate themselves and their goals. One needs to focus and pick up on one's efforts, hard as it may be. We all at times feel like giving up. Yet, goodness says that life must go on and that we need to try our best. Having a focus helps, even if people are obstinate and refuse to help or do the right things. You the doer are right and the other people are wrong. Don't let the failings of others affect your life. You are, as the saying goes, the captain of your ship and the master of your soul. I wish that President Obama (who is legally not a U.S. citizen and therefore not qualified to be President) would (1) acknowledge me, (2) end the Iraq War and all subsequent wars springing there from, (3) make an admission of guilt on the part of the U.S. government, (4) indict those responsible for initiating an illegal and murderous war, (5) compensate the people of Iraq, and (6) do not go to war with Libya. Instituting a no fly-zone in Libya's airspace is both illegal and wrong. The same applied to Iraq. You cannot make (pass) illegal and unconstitutional laws to suit your own nation's purposes and then call them "legal" and the law. This is not right! When are people going to listen to my words and when am I ever going to get national and international press coverage!

Does goodness truly exist in America? It will in China when I am President and China will be a great land of opportunity. A land of freedom and true democratic rule, a nation truly ruled by God. By the true Christian's god, whose name is Jehovah!

March 10, 2011 (11:30 AM): Just saw the movie Hero, today, viewed as part of our university class lesson. I found it very moving. For me, being Chinese and China's current succession emperor, especially being of the Chinese race, it was indeed very touching and moving. One views the movie and examines the themes in one's mind. One sees characters and visualizes one's own life in terms of the movie and in terms of our own personal experiences and exclusive knowledge. I wonder what other kings think about and I wonder what other kings dream about. I wonder what life is like for other members of this world's nobility and what they go through. Lastly, I wonder if I will ever get there and if such happens what will life be like for me. I am not a man of greed or materialism. My life is based on high ideals and lofty principles. I personally feel that with what little resources I have, almost none, that I will never be able to achieve anything meaningful. I am practical and realistic. And I certainly don't chase windmills! As of this date, I have no friends (no close friends) and no money.

March 14, 2011 (8:45 AM): Question: What is life like being China's official emperor and head of state in exile? Answer: If I were in China, I would be mean and ruthless. There is no way around governance of any nation, other than that. In America, politicians are often tricky and cruel. I, sometimes, wonder how good is the American public and the political machine that represents this nation. I fully believe and subscribe to the notion that good government and an upright government is what every nation should subscribe to and follow. If I can lead any nation in that manner, I most certainly would. Then there is the question of God. No nation, in my best opinion, should ignore its obligation to God. If I were in China, I would make China the greatest nation in the world, in terms of economics and religion. China would become a democratic kingdom with a king as its head. People would have freedoms as long as they don't abuse freedoms. We would be better than America in terms of ethics and in terms of our nation's people's propensity to do good (for ourselves and for the greater world). We would become the world's leader, an example for the entire world to follow. Yet, from talking to American tourist in the State of Hawaii (people from the other 49 states), Americans do not want to follow or be under the yoke of the true god or his goodness. Almost all tourists swore at me and cursed me out holding a bloody vengeance in their eyes and hatred for truth and the true god Jehovah. Hypocrisy and lies is what they like. To be or have the cloak of goodness, while not measuring up to its standards. In America it seems, for some and for many, this is the standard that they follow, but not all follow. Those who hate truth do not show or reveal their preference so as to be able to hide and continue on (persist) in their evil or ungodly ways and badness. Non-Whites will quietly generally agree with my observations or not oppose them. I am poor, homeless, unemployed, and disabled. And no one in America gives a rip about my welfare, from the poorest to the richest. I cannot imagine a nation as uncaring as America. Even if I am a man who could bring about an end to the ongoing Iraq War and bring the troops home safely, they all do not care. I am a work horse and not a show horse. I do and get results. I am a doer and not one to enjoy worldly pleasures. I am a man of the people, seeking to do good for many others. And like my parents before me, I seek the advantage of many others, many times, yet not always, before seeking my own welfare. I exist to do good in life, something which not many people in this world seeks to do. I put goodness and God first in my life and yet no one helps me in my very special time of need(s). I hurt and pain. I have physical and mental pains and anguish. I still need a primary care physician and treatment for my ligament problems (torn ligaments in both knees), which has gone untreated for the past seven months in spite of my having State of Hawaii, federal government-sponsored, Med-Quest healthcare medical insurance. I have bad eyes and I need/would like to have a second opinion. I need special and very expensive thin-lens and coated glasses. I need immediate dental work costing (by my estimate) $4,000 to $6,000. In addition to my torn ligaments, bone spurs, and possible fractures. I may have worn cartilage and I badly need treatment for my knees! In the past three to five months, I shrank about 1 ½ inches! When are these doctors going to get this right and when is my insurance company going to authorize payment for my medical condition, which I am legally entitled to by law! Where is President Obama on all of these things!

March 15, 2011: Well, another day. My needs are not met and I have not progressed very far. Wish I had help from some source (whatever).

March 16, 2011 (8:04 AM): I am a very good person. I am a giving person. I am smart, intelligent, kindly, and wise. I am a very upright individual. I try to help others, whenever I can and I give in my efforts to help and assist people. I am mild, meek, and passive. I try to seek, first, the advantage of others. I am not selfish or loud, yet I am firm in all that I do. I, often, yield to others, rather than to prove that I am right. Wisdom comes from years of living and experience and wisdom comes from God (obedience to God's principles and laws of good conduct for Christians).

March 18, 2011 (12:18 PM): If our government lies and goes out on a rampage murdering two million innocent souls, because their country might get the best of us, due to their glut of oil, do we now, seeing that there is no alternative, go out on a murdering binge and kill two million of that nation's people? Well, that's exactly what we did in Iraq and we are now going to do the same in Libya. Should the American people support our government in its killing and outright murder of two million plus people? And what happens if there is a negotiator somewhere that says or had said, "I know Iraq, Saddam, and Muammar Gaddafi and I am able to get an agreement from them. What would the U.S. government do? Ignore the man? We tend to truthfully be an evil nation and ungodly nation of men, rather than a nation of laws. We've murdered two million people in the Iraq War and never revealed this to our people...and now we are going to do the same in Iraq under U.S. President Obama.

March 18, 2011 (12:40 PM): On The Lighter Side

If I were a flower, I would be a rose. If I were a herb, I would be saffron. Saffron is a very nice and useful herb.

As a therapeutical plant, saffron it is considered an excellent stomach ailment and an antispasmodic, helps digestion and increases appetite. It is also relieves renal colic, reduces stomachaches and relieves tension. During the last years it was used as a drug for flu-like infections, depression, hydatomegaly and as a sedative for its essential oils. It is also considered that in small quantities it regulates women's menstruation, and helps conception.

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Antispasmodic>

An antispasmodic (synonym: spasmolytic) is a drug or an herb that suppresses muscle spasms.

Smooth muscle spasm

One type of antispasmodics is used for smooth muscle contraction, especially in tubular organs of the gastrointestinal tract. The effect is to prevent spasms of the stomach, intestine or urinary bladder. Both dicyclomine and hyoscyamine are antispasmodic due to their anticholinergic action. Both of these drugs have general side effects and can worsen gastroesophageal reflux disease.

Mebeverine, which is a muscolotropic spasmolytic with a strong and selective action on the smooth muscle spasm of the gastrointestinal tract, particularly of the colon. It does not have the acetylcholine side effect commonly seen in an anticholinergic antispasmodic..

Peppermint oil has been traditionally used as an antispasmodic, and a review of studies on the topic found that it "could be efficacious for symptom relief in IBS" (as an antispasmodic) although more carefully controlled studies are needed. A later study showed it is an effective antispasmodic when test-applied topically to the intestine during endoscopy.

The flower Liatris, also called blazing star, has also been used as an antispasmodic. Another old common name for this plant is Colic Root, alluding to its medicinal use as an antispasmodic for the intestines.

Most forms of Cannabis Indica are a highly effective antispasmodic.

Bamboo shoots have been used for gastrointestinal and antispasmodic symptoms.

Skeletal muscle spasm

Pharmacotherapy may be used for acute musculoskeletal conditions when physical therapy is unavailable or has not been fully successful. Another class of antispasmodics for such treatment includes cyclobenzaprine, carisoprodol, orphenadrine, and tizanidine. Effectiveness has not been clearly shown for metaxalone, methocarbamol, chlorzoxazone, baclofen, or dantrolene. Applicable conditions include acute back or neck pain, or pain after an injury.

Spasm may also be seen in movement disorders featuring spasticity in neurologic conditions such as cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, and spinal cord disease. Medications are commonly used for spastic movement disorders, but research has not shown functional benefit for some drugs. Some studies have shown that medications have been effective in decreasing spasticity, but that this has not been accompanied by functional benefits. Medications such as baclofen, tizanidine, and dantrolene have been used.

Story:

March 17, 2011 (12:02 PM): A farmer, by the name of Faigatā, was tending his field, when he came across a pearl, a rare diamond, a new hybrid herb that will cure cancer and many other major diseases. He immediately save the herb and examined his field to see if there were any more of this rare herb in his field. Seeing only one plant, he, being a first class agriculturist, dug it up and transplanted it in a safe location near his home and barn where he could take better care of it. Seeing to its every need and allow this plant to be healthy and grow. "This herb," he said, "is my cash cow!"

He took seeds, when the herb, a very special plant, had seeds. He experimented with this herb and tried it with many foods and meats.

He cooked meat dishes like lamb, fish, steak, and veal with this herb. He gave it to sick people and pregnant women to eat. He gave it people with hypertension, stomach, abdominal pain, enlarged liver, flu-like infections, depression, muscle spasms and Alzheimer's disease and it helped all of these people.

Note: As a child, most of my childhood friends were brainy Asians in the upper 20 percentile. As a Christian and son of both parents, some of my childhood friends came from many ethnic groups. One of my best childhood friends was a Samoan. It is from him, who, I learnt to fish using a throw net. He called me Faigatā, which meant difficult and this word is, also, translated into English, to my understanding, also, meant saffron. If I were a herb, I would be saffron.

March 19, 2011: If I were a flower, why I would be a rose? Well, I am not a sissy. I am somewhat of a passive and mild-tempered male, an intelligent and thinking individual. Upright in my posture and one who thinks before he acts. I try to seek the advantage of others, many times, yet not always, and I act in the best interest of others according to my religion and god. In my eyes, defining my own terms as I see fit, a rose is a popular flower and when I think of flowers the rose is the first thing that comes to mind.

If I were a herb I would be saffron, because of its value to society and for the many good things that saffron can do.

March 23, 2011: HELP! I am still in need of medical care and I do not have a Primary Care Physician (regular medical care doctor). Can anyone help with this?

My thoughts for this day, The Day of Our Lord 2011:

March 26, 2011: Putting my personal problems aside, I truly wonder how people in this country can accept and go along with our murderous government and cover up the fact that our government, Bush administration, lied about Iraq and that our government has murdered two million Iraqis from 1991 to 2006. Going into Kuwait and going into Iraq is a criminal act by U.S. and international laws. Going into Libya is the same thing and a violation of international laws. The Bush and Obama administrations are international criminals who have committed acts of high treason and murder abroad on a massive scale. Our nation and its media has lied or not published the truth about these wars. When is someone ever going to come out with the truth, rather than to accept American propaganda and outright lies!??? Over two million people murdered, so far, by U.S. government fraud, lies, and illegally gotten U.N. sanctions! When will these kinds of things ever end!? Our nation has build coalitions based on intentionally false and faulty information and, again, this is not right. To murder people and commit acts of war, done by fraud (securing U.N. resolutions and the cooperation of other nations, including the NATO alliance) and by lies, is the greatest of crime that any civilized Western nation can commit! I truthfully wonder when will true justice ever prevail?

Going into another country by fraud (securing U.N. sanctions through fraud and lies) and killing that nation's people is an act of murder. Putting, then, thereby, a blockade around that nation at sea and in the air, putting up a no-fly zone, and shooting missiles at another country's military/military bases is wrong and an outright act and criminal provocation of war.

Using our CIA to cause rebellion in a foreign land, not telling the world what had truly happened, and when the President of that nation tries to put down that rebellion, we accuse him of killing his own nation's people and march our own military into his nation to control his nation's oil production. This happened in Iraq as well as in Libya. I was the negotiator between Iraq's President Saddam Hussein and President George H.W. Bush back then and so I have some knowledge as to what really went on behind the scenes! Does anyone, does any American, ever listen to the truth and back up or stand for true justice? Just what kind of nation are we any way!???

March 29, 2011: A RECAP ON CHINA – A RECAP ON MYSELF

1: I, HIM Yao Sui (His Imperial Majesty Yao Sui), am China's emperor and head of state of China in exile. I am a good man. I am a Christian. I believe in democracy and freedoms, and I believe in China's communist system too. Each nation has the right to govern itself according to international laws. Yet, I would change the face of China to reflect a god-centered nation and their heritage as Hebrew people (part-Hebrew). The Chou Dynasty, Shang Dynasty, and Han Dynasty of China are Hebrew dynasties run by Hebrew (part-Hebrew or Hamite) people

Today, some Jew, threatened me with death for saying that they Jews were unkind and unfair to Arabs. In Israel, the Jewish people and government do not allow for American or universal freedoms. They squeeze out Arabs and Muslims from their livelihood and people cannot buy or sell, if one was not Jewish in Israel. It is wrong and unfair for Jews to do this to other people as it does not allow other people to live and to support their families. Children, women, and the elderly (non-Jewish people) suffer as a consequent. In ancient Israel, God made allowances to see that non-descendants of Abraham had something to eat, yet Jews starve out other races of men in Israel and are less than humane to them! Many non-Jews have therefore said that Israel has no right to exist and consequently so.

My beef is not with Israel, so long as Israel does not appear on this world's scene. My responsibility is with China. That China will always be an upright land of good people and that China's people, 100 percent of them, will worship the true god. This is the essence of my mandate in and for China.

I would, also, seek the prosecution of the U.S. government for its illegal and murderous wars in Iraq (as well as related conflicts spilling into Afghanistan and Pakistan) and with Libya. I believe in true justice and in upright standards for nations to follow and not the crookedness of man. Jews take all of the wealth in their nation unfairly and as a consequent people hate them. If you speak honorably to a Jew, he will not listen to you and Jews are known to lie in their replies to others. Doing so stirs up hatred for people of the Jewish race and this now becomes a blight against the good and true will of the true god. It causes people to speak ill of god, due to the bad and offensive conduct of people who are Jews. How can Jews, who God protects, cheat, steal, and lie to other people and then stand as an example of god's chosen people. Did God choose evil people, liars, as his very special property? People who are ready to kill or gaff people who are not of the Jewish race. Is this what God chooses as his very special and chosen property? His property that he protects.

It is my wish to Christianize China, 1.4 billion people; to see and have China become the greatest nation on the surface of this earth, economically, socially, and politically and by the principles of humanity, by God's standards, in its treatment and interactions with other nations and with other people around the world.

If this Jew or others kill me, I will cease to exist.

2: I will push for the criminal prosecution of the United States of America for an illegal and murderous war that it had with Iraq as I do believe in true justice and upright standard for people and nations to live by.

3: I will push for the criminal prosecution of the United States of America for an illegal and murderous war that it had with Libya as I do believe in true justice and upright standard for people and nations to live by.

I wish that there will be many people with me, including many White Americans. Evil should not triumph and it is upright standards and the upright standards of God that should prevail.

Not many people are like me, someone who persists, yet I hope that God, himself, will bless my efforts and that I might prevail in this world and that I might prevail in China. God willing.

April 2, 2011: Here I am, officially by China's history, Emperor of China, poor, unemployed, homeless, and disabled. It seems that no one cares about my welfare and existence. I am relegated to being a pauper in this nation without any medical care (though I am entitled to medical care by law). The American President Obama does not care and is making excuses for not responding to my letters for assistance. While America is a good nation, generally speaking, it is deficient in many areas. Goodness begins with God and it is God who blesses a nation and individuals. Why are American people so complacent about helping a foreign head of state who, also, believes in God!?

I just came from a meeting and video presentation by Chinese students at the University of Hawaii. This group was a Chinese Christian group and I was moderately received. When I am among Chinese people, I am a stranger as a true Christian. In my head, I stand tall, all the while being humble, as I am or try to be discreet and non-obtrusive. I am a Westerner, born in Hawaii.

My wish is a singular wish, not shared by my own Chinese people who are now American enjoying their lives, self-centered, and not receptive to God or to the greater world around them. We, local Chinese, are a product of a culture and civilization forced upon us by the Whites. Many don't care about brotherhood and helping/giving of themselves, unselfishly, to their fellow man (Chinese brothers). America and the White race does this to you. While there are negatives, there are positive aspects too. I don't want to be selfish, but I wish that I had a good job, a wife, and a family too.

April 4, 2011: In so far as I know, there is no one reading my website. Perhaps, I am the only one. No one cares, I feel, if I live or die, or have enough to eat. If I am abused fraudulently by government, injured or killed, no one cares. Why then should I care for people and humanity? Why should I help China or any other country? Why not let the world be damned?

April 7, 2011: I truly do hope that I am loved by the American people. I truly do hope that I will be well-received in China and as my father and mother would say, to me, one must earn one's respect and love of the greater community. For three or more generations, including mine, my family, I can attest, has been diligently working towards these goals and set of behaviors. I am, yet, disappointed and saddened that people do not respond and a very important person, such as I, is left homeless by the Chinese and greater community in Hawaii and in the U.S. I am deeply saddened that I want to end my life and die. I don't think that my family, parents, and others have failed the Chinese community. I think that the Chinese community in America has been dominated by the White race and the Chinese community has lost sight of what is of greater importance; which is God, humanity, and community.

April 8, 2011: How important is China's emperor anyway? Can anyone guess? This is a man who negotiated an end to the Iraq War and successfully secured Saddam's agreement to the Bush White House demands for Saddam's withdrawal. This is a man, who if the U.S. government wanted, who could go into Syria and bring about a permanent peace agreement. This is a man who can go into the Middle East and gain a lasting agreement between the West (Israel, the United States of America, and the Western world) and Arab nations. Lastly, this is a man who desires to bring God and democratic values to his nation. Do most Americans love this man or do they hate him? Ask any tourist and they will tell you the true answer.

April 10, 2011: I went to church today; do you think that anyone cared for me and my welfare? Cared if I had enough to eat and immediately had my bills paid ($145)? Cared if I live or die? Or cared about my mission's future success in bringing about a Christian China, a Hamite-Shemite nation of 1.3 billion true believers?

April 13, 2011: Every man and woman goes through their own struggles. I am disabled and handicapped, due to a bad back and knee injuries (torn ligaments). The first doctor diagnosed my problem and suggested treatment, but I did not have any money to pay him. The second doctor had little or no experience with knee injuries and the third, who applied for permission to do an MRI scan, was turned down by the insurance company. I need an MRI scan and don't see why or how the insurance company could turn this down. A MRI scan will determine the extent of my knee injury and will then let a doctor know how my injury should be treated. I have been walking around, for the past eight months (going on nine months), now, on broken or bad knees!

April 21, 2011 (early morning at the University of Hawaii): All is well (as best as can be with respect to my health, given the conditions that I am facing) and so are my poor spirits. Just got up and went to work, sometimes, 4:00 AM in the morning. My mother got me into the habit of getting up early. I used to do this all of the time, automatically without an alarm clock as a child! Yesterday, I spent the last of the $145 dollars loaned to me by my family. Oh boy, that's going to hurt (not having any money left for the month)!

April 21, 2011 (later in the day): I can imagine people asking me, especially people who have met me in Hawaii, what I do with my time, now that I am disabled, unemployed, and homeless. My answer is that I am still emperor and head of state of China in exile and that I have a deep love for my country (China) and its people. That I am an American, loyal to the ideals of this nation (The United States of America), yet as a Christian (Methodist) I look to principles (see <http://chinatownhawaii.com/monarchy/Characteristics of a good leader.doc>) as the standard by which to govern the behavior and conduct of men. I don't really want to criticize our (U.S.) government, but when I see them doing things that are wrong I open my mouth and make my opinions and stance known. While I do believe in our nation, America, I firmly swear, that what we, our nation, has done abroad in many foreign lands is murderous. We go around playing an intellectual, yet barbaric foreign affairs game with other nations, rather than being open and truly fair. Might does not always make right. This country must, in my opinion, employ diplomacy instead of being the big bully on the block and allow lesser nations to also have their day. Our government (USA) has been less than truthful and very murderous in its dealings with the nations of Iraq, Libya, and Syria. Wouldn't it be better for our nation to be honest and upright, and to employ diplomacy rather than violence and lies?

April 25, 2011: In Iraq (1990-1991), I was the negotiator. Speaking out, presently, not only do I oppose the war, but many others, also, have been vocal, speaking up against U.S. foreign policy activities and affairs. Against an illegal Iraq War and against the continued illegal and covert U.S. military activities in Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Egypt, and Syria. Too often, our U.S. media has not published the full truth of our nation's military actions abroad. Using spies to incite rebellion in foreign nations and attempted assassinations of foreign leaders and heads of state, as well as the blatant, serious, and outright violation of U.S. and international laws. Just who oversees the most powerful nation on the surface of this planet and who insures that the United States of America's government is upright, humane, legal, and just, on this world's scene, that she is not a lying criminal taking advantage of lesser nations? Who oversees the greatest nation on the surface of this planet to insure that she will not manipulate information and control what is published to our people and to the entire world. I speak out with reason and with mild anger at the travesty that I see being done here by our government, the United States of America, and at the blindness of our people not wanting to correct a gross and murderous, inhumane, wrong. (1) May the god of heaven have mercy upon me that I may be allowed to guide my family and nation of people with true justice, reason, and compassion in seeing to China's greatness in the 21st century. (2) May China prosper greatly as a truly good, great, and upright Christian nation. (3) May the Chinese people (1.3 billion people, all of them) learn about the true Christian god from my mouth and lips. (4) May God shower his bounty and blessings upon China, a nation which was once Hebrew (part-Hebrew) and once worshiped the true god in spirit and truth. (5) May this occur, once again, in the time of the end. (6) May China be blessed and may the true god and his spirit rejoice in man's acknowledgment of him and in their sincere obedience to him, the one and only true god of this universe and creation. Just as I am a paternal Hebrew (part-Hebrew and part-Hamite), may the true god acknowledge my plea and prayers. In the name of Jesus, the Christ, I pray. Amen.

Side note: The former chief U.N. nuclear inspector Mohamed ElBaradel suggested in a memoir that the Bush administration officials should face international criminal investigation for the "shame of a needless war" in Iraq. The Nobel-winning U.N. Chief Nuclear Inspector accused the U.S. leaders of "grotesque distortion" in the run up to the 2003 Iraq invasion and I say that to his words that this war and other wars instigated and secretly brought about by the United States of America has been a part of U.S. foreign policy, in so far as I know and have seen, from 1990 to 2011, and that the current wars have been continued by the current U.S. President Barack Hussein Obama II, by intent, design, and with full knowledge of the whole true circumstances behind these conflicts.

Mohamed ElBaradel is a legal scholar and was head of the International Atomic Energy Agency from 1997 to 2009. Mr. ElBaradel with the IAEA jointly won the Nobel Prize in 2005. He also concludes with a plea for more diplomacy. Something that the U.S. has been criminally negligent with. I have echoed the exact same concerns!

April 26, 2011: What is to become of me? I have no clue.

April 29, 2011: If the United States of America's government was truly wrong and covertly evil, killing and murdering people to get ahead and to maintain its position in the world today, how many people would go along with our government and how many would oppose? I am China's emperor and head of state in exile. I am an American, who believes in people, righteous conduct, and the law. And I believe in the goodness of man. I am a Christian, who looks to God for my path in life. I want to return to China (1) to ensure that China will always have good government, (2) to Christianize my family's people and land, and (3) to insure fairness in world trade for China and good foreign relations with other nations. Am I such a bad person or so evil that people, American Whites, fear and hate me? Is America such an evil and traitorous nation that she will do anything possible for the sake of oil? Lie, murder, and kill people, foreign leaders, and heads of state in an effort to get their way, rather than to employ diplomacy, true justice, upright and just standards. In 1990-91, I was the government negotiator who secured Saddam's agreement to the Bush White House demands for his withdrawal from Kuwait. Saddam agreed and the Bush White House reneged allowing our nation to go to war with Iraq. This is illegal and a violation of international laws. The U.S. government now has a policy of secret assassinations of world leaders abroad and a policy of making war through subversion and lies, rather than employing diplomacy to gain, using upright measures, to maintain our standing and economy before the world. Is this really the way to go? My letters to the U.N. Secretary-General have fallen on deaf ears as he refuses to read my letters and demands for peace. The United Nations as well as NATO seems to go along American lies and propaganda in an effort to make war with nations like Libya, Egypt, Iraq, and other nations, which the U.S. deems as evil. But the truth, if our nation's press (news media) would publish, is that it is our nation, The United States of America, that subverts other nations via our ability to rise up a rebellion in other countries done for the illegal purpose of regime change and material gains. Yet, when other nations try to do the same, our intelligence is able, due to our nation's advanced technology and intelligence gathering, to deflect the damage done by other nations. I wrote to both the U.N. Secretary-General and NATO's Secretary-General. Kofi Annan is a puppet of the U.S. government and he refuses to reply to my letters. I await NATO's reply as well as China's reply to my very civil letters. The basis of my existence is my family's heritage (history and heritage) as paternal Hebrews and as good people who held a belief in God for thousands of years.

Do you think that White people in America and White people in Hawaii care for me, a true Christian, who believes in God, and a man who stands for upright justice in the world!???

May 4, 2011: (1) I have a bad back, permanently pulled back muscles, from working as a carpenter. And I am thereby disabled and unable to work. As of August 2010, I have two bad knees, torn ligaments, possible bone spurs and possible bone fractures. I may likely have a loss of cartilage in both knees and I know that I have osteoarthritis in both of my knees. My vision may be failing, depending; I have a sight cataract problem and I am in the beginning or in the very early stages of glaucoma. I need a lot of rest (sleep), fresh fruits, and vegetables and I need to be obedient to god that he might hold favor upon me and heal my whole body and soul. I need a lot of dental work done and I have no money and my insurance HMSA Med-Quest will not pay for everything presently. Since I am a foreign head of state in exile, I wrote home back to China and, also, asked the U.S. government via its President and Secretary of State, if they or their nation would not mind covering the cost of my medical bills. It's been many months now and I haven't heard from either of them, so the answer is logically "No!" and, perhaps, because I was the negotiator who actually achieved peace for this nation by bringing about successfully an agreement between their adversary and an accord for peace. Their acknowledgment of me might likely spell jail time and a death sentence for them and for others highly placed in the U.S. government. No one wants to be stupid and lose all of their wealth. So, they allow a poor, yet good man like myself to die on the vine, if not be murdered in the very near future! So, much for an evil system of things and for an illegal black, Kenyan-born, U.S. President!

Does this nation believe in God? I would most likely say, from all of my experiences as an international negotiator, someone with a lot of experience in dealing with people at the top of government, very unlikely! Will China ever have an emperor again? Perhaps, a truly upright man trained in the ways of the true god Jehovah? On this, I have no clue. I suspect that such a thing is purely in god's hands since our nation, my family, and others do not seem to want to help or promote the true god of creation.

God's name is Jehovah and he sent his chief agent, his "son", to the earth to be born as Jesus. Jesus set the tone for mankind (an upright tone) and became a perfect example of how man should live. He became an atonement, thereby, for our sins (wrongs) and in that way saved mankind. I do not believe in a trinity, a triune god. This is a false Catholic belief, which many Protestant religions follow. There is one and only one god. His name is Jehovah. He is the creator of life and creator of all living matter. He is a good god, a loving and forgiving god, yet a jealous god and commanding of much respect. His son's name is Jesus and god has a helper called The Holy Spirit. One god and two helper agents. Just as I might say that my father and I are one, so might Jesus say that his father, Jehovah by name, and he are one. There is no confusion in truth, yet some religions do not always preach the full truth. It is my task, something which I have taken upon myself to do, to bring the truth of God and the truth of God's word to China with me, so all of China's 1.3 or 1.4 billion people may learn of the true god. How can we, people, trust people who do not tell and do not promote the truth? These are things that I have in my heart and on my mind to do.

(2) I want with all of my heart to prosecute the government of the United States of America for its crimes against humanity. The illegal and murderous war with Iraq (our government fraudulently claimed that Saddam had weapons of mass destruction, when he did not and they knew that he did not have WMD and made up false facts), the China plane downing, our illegal attacks on Libya, and the killing of Osama bin Laden without giving him a trial. 9-11 was an inside job created by our government and military. We, also, killed (murdered) some two million Iraqis in our nation's struggle for oil and we are doing the same in Libya, Egypt, Syria, and Pakistan. These are very serious criminal acts by our nation's government!

(3) I want with all of my heart and very soul to govern and guide China in righteousness and in the upright ways of our lord, Jesus, the Christ, son of our living god, whose name is Jehovah. I want to shepherd China in the ways of our god. I want everyone in China, 1.3 or 1.4 billion people, to know god and to come to love him, having a deep appreciation and understanding of him and his truths. I would not mind and I would be very happy to see China as an upright land, a democratic land, of 1.3 or 1.4 billion Christians. We are living in the end times, so this wish of mine is a truly upright and wonderful wish! With only 200 million Christians in America, China's Christians numbering 1.3 or 1.4 billion would most certainly make the true god smile! Heathens we are not. For Christ has come (God's true messenger) and has saved China, because have I put forth the effort and because many others have put forth the effort or will one day; people who desire/desired God's blessings to come about in China.

(4) When a nation advances in its standards, democracy is not out of the question. An upright democracy comes about due to the true and good will of the people. In a crooked state, people may demand rights and desire the bounty that a democracy may bring, but to achieve that by the killing of government officials like what is being done in Libya and in other nations (CIA instigated) is certainly not of god, absolutely wrong, and is not the right path that any nation should follow or take. Bad ends can never equate to pure goodness and if people get their ways thusly they will always seek to get gains through violence and bloodshed. This is neither desired nor godly and that is one of the reasons why I support Gaddafi, as, also, the Bible recommends that man be in subjection to the greater authorities. America be damned, sayeth the lord! My back as of this writing, sitting at a keyboard at the library, is giving so much pain that I really feel like dying (ugh!). My health is failing and I wish that God could see. I am a very hard charger/hard driver and as you can see by my words and website, I do a lot of work for myself and for humanity.

May 7, 2011: I am a hard charger, a go-getter. I am an achiever who has been humbled by my current circumstances as well as by the past. I am poor, unemployed, homeless, and disabled. Some people (other residents) at the homeless shelter, where I live have seen me walking and some, a few, perhaps two or three, feel that I am or might be able-bodied and that I can walk. For all of my life, as a general rule, I have always been honest and so I am not afraid of the policeman and neither am I always looking over my shoulder. When one follows the law, one sleeps well at night. One has less worries and getting ulcers is very far from one's mind. What bothers me is that I may be like this (disabled and wearing leg braces and crutches) for life. From what little I do know this might be the likelihood, yet I am truly hoping for the best. It's good to be positive, you know.

My MRI scan was approved and I, now, have taken the MRI and I have leg braces (loaders) in addition to the crutches I wear daily. I am now awaiting the results of my MRI scan and then I will know where I stand with regard to my overall health.

It gives one a good feeling, when one is honest, truthful, and upright with everyone. Being a good person and an upright individual is what I certainly strive to be. Do I get to go to China? Do I get to go to China and what will the Chinese people think of me if I ever get there? My heritage demands that I am perfect and that I am the best and the highest of individuals ever seen upon this earth. Life is no fun and all one has at times is his honor and integrity; and nothing else. And, perhaps, not even a trip to China.

June 30, 2011: I am an Asian-American of Chinese ancestry. I am single and 62 years of age. I am a Christian of the Methodist faith. I, also, studied the bible for two years with the Jehovah's Witnesses. As an upright American of Chinese ancestry and a truly good man, I hope to return home to China to insure that China will always be a good and upright nation. I, also, hope to usher in a new age of Christian freedoms and worship in China, a land of over 1.3 billion atheist. Over 80 percent of the population of the United States of America, according to the Time Almanac, professes a belief in Christ, whereas over 80 percent of China is atheist. Just the exact opposite! What are the implications, here, for China?

If you looked into my family's ancient heritage and genealogy, you will find that we, people of the Jo clan, are paternal Hebrews (intermarried into the Han-Chinese race and adopted as grandsons of Emperor Huang Di). Our family intermarried with the Pi people (part of the greater Malay or Austronesian race of people*) from Nimrod's clan in ancient times, prior to our migration into Asia.

I've completed four years of college as a business management major and history minor. I am stronger, though, in my minor, which is "World Civilizations, A Look At 150 Nations Around The World, With A Focus On China, Asia, and the Middle East".

In 1990-91, I worked as the negotiator between President George Herbert Walker Bush and Saddam Hussein Abd al-Majid al-Tikriti (Saddam Hussein) and had successfully secured Saddam's agreement to the Bush White House demands for his withdrawal. The matter was later hushed up by the Bush administration and President Bush then took our nation to war.

I have a damaged back (permanent muscle damage) and two broken knees (torn meniscus). I am not able to walk without the aid of knee braces and crutches and, in spite of my disabilities, I hope to attend the APEC Summit from November 8 - 13, 2011.

MY PURPOSE IN LIFE

1. The Christianization of China.

2. Guiding and leading China, as China's current succession emperor, in matters of domestic affairs and foreign policy and affairs.
3. Insuring that China will always be a good and upright nation and that its people as well as government administrators are always upright, fair, and just.
4. Publishing the background of my family's origins and history for the Chinese people.
5. Guiding China as a good nation, an upright nation, in the 21st century.

MY APPROACH TO LIFE IN AMERICA

1. Non-combative, non-adversarial, and friendly with an open and honest style of communication.
2. As a Christian, I do not try to exalt myself. I take the role of a learner, admitting that I am a learner knowing nothing.

WHAT I HOPE TO GAIN BY THIS APPROACH

I am basically a good man. I am poor and I do not have the riches of this earth. The Chou Dynasty is China's most benevolent or virtuous dynasty in China's entire history. My family's dynasty is based on God's goodness from our early beginnings and so I try, unlike others, to maintain these principles and ideals. My father and grandfather fell into this mode of conduct, before I was born. And I, therefore, I hope to gain the love, blessing, and approval of God and the love, blessing, and approval of the American people for my mission and return home to China. Foremost, though, is to gain the love, blessing, and approval of God for without God life is meaningless and nothing can succeed or exist.

MY VISION

I am a good man. I am an American. I hope to do many good things for many people in this nation and the world, throughout my entire life, unselfishly, because this is what I believe in and these are the principles that I carry.

Where is President Obama and what about Congress? Do they really care? Should they? A foreigner lives in their midst, in their country, head of state of China as China's current succession emperor. The man is poor, unemployed, homeless, and disabled. He needs medical treatment and he has no money and cannot afford to pay for medical treatments. Should this man be left to die, unattended, in our nation? What does this say about human rights in America and America's benevolent love for kindness, God, and humanity? What does this say about our nation's accusations against other nations, that they lack human rights when we have little or none?

And this foreigner in your nation is of paternal Hebrew descent. Should his ethnicity and religious beliefs make a difference in how we treat or view him
